Hello again,

It has been a particularly busy week so please read on! Just one quick plug and that is for next Saturday's Forever Stars event - full details in the Diary section.

As ever,

High Street Minister praises our great towns!

Penny Mordaunt, Minister for the High Street and Town Centres paid us a visit on Thursday.

First on a whistle stop tour was Kimberley, where Penny was particularly impressed with the variety and quality of shops. Penny had a long chat with local traders, Madhatters Tea Room owner Nygel Stevenson and Roy Plumb who has had a shop on James Street for decades. Penny also walked through Kimberley meeting other shops keepers.

We specifically talked about the IKEA retail park outside Kimberley and the need to improve signage into Kimberley. Penny suggested the forming of a Traders Association which could bid for financial support and make representations to the Town, Borough and County Councils to bring users of the retail park into Kimberley. There were a number of other great suggestions which I will follow up with Kimberley traders and Penny's Ministerial team.

In Stapleford community champion, Richard MacRae brought together a number of people who had recently started their own businesses in the town. My thanks to Fabbylicious for feeding us and for everyone who didn't hold back in telling Penny and I about some of the difficulties they had faced.

Penny had a good look at the town and we both recognise there is a real "buzz" with new small and national branded businesses. Penny's advice was the need for a Traders Association and she has promised to find a mentor for the town's smaller businesses. I will hold her to that!

Beeston Tram Enquiry

My request to the Chair of the House of Commons Transport Committee for an enquiry into the tram extension and works received a lot of publicity and support. I will of course let you know her reply! Any enquiry would be held after the General Election (I think it should be held once the tram is running). Penny Mordaunt has agreed to return to look specifically at Beeston Town Centre where there has been considerable concern (which I share) about the refurbishment of the Square. My fear is Broxtowe Borough Council has failed to use the opportunity the tram brings to restore Beeston the thriving town it was and undoubtedly can be again.

ShoeAid support

It was a real honour to meet Lee Todd and Sarah Kearsley from the Toton based charity ShoeAid.

They collect new and gently worn shoes and give them to people in need. 95% of their shoes and boots donated go overseas via Nottingham's Muslim Hands and the National Police Aid convoys.

Shoe Aid is looking to expand - having already distributed 40,000 pairs of shoes. I am helping them do just that and hope you will support them by clicking here

ShoeAid "we believe walking barefoot should be a choice, not a hardship"

New White Bull - a possible reprieve and a petition to save it!

I am told that the sale of this excellent Giltbrook pub to the Co-Op has suffered a glitch. In the meantime there is a petition to save the pub in the local newsagents (Ron's). As you might imagine, I am making further enquiries!

The Haven Centre, Stapleford and falling unemployment

It was a great pleasure the visit the Haven Church Centre in Stapleford just before Christmas. Please check out their great work here.

On Friday they met Iain Duncan Smith the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions. The Haven has a series of excellent projects to help people get into work and off benefit and Iain was keen to hear of their work.

The Haven is having an open day on Saturday January 31st in their new home on Wadsworth Road (details in the diary).

Broxtowe Fact File: Beeston Job Centre Plus is one of the best for helping people find work. Iain Duncan Smith was impressed with our falling rates of unemployment at 1.7% with 438 fewer claimants in the last 12 months, a fall of 34%. The latest unemployment stats are out next week.
