Anna Soubry MP working hard for Broxtowe

E-newsletter | May 17 2015

Hello again,

As you may have heard I have a new job in Government; I will be attending the Cabinet as the Minister for Business and Enterprise. My thanks to everyone (especially a number of local businesses!) who have kindly sent their congratulations. I am delighted to be at the heart of the Government's plans to make sure our economy continues to grow for the benefit of everyone in the United Kingdom. Parliament does not really get underway until a week on Wednesday when we have the Queen's Speech, though we do sit on Monday to elect a Speaker.

My constituency work continues - details below.

As ever,
Anna

At last! Daytime tram testing starts

The first tram to be tested in the daytime went past my office on Friday.

The full speed testing, especially at night has caused many residents on the route to complain about the noise and lights disturbing their sleep. I have passed on emails on to NET.

Residents and businesses should not hesitate to contact me on anna.soubry.mp@parliament.uk or call the office on 0115 9436507. I have already spoken to the Transport Secretary Patrick McLoughlin about the enquiry which will be held by his department in to the funding and value of the tram.

Please be assured I will continue to press the Transport Select Committee to hold their own inquiry to take 'evidence' from residents and businesses once the new Chair and members have been elected. I will also continue to work for compensation for residents and to ensure all businesses receive the compensation they are due.

Beeston town centre - have your say

Broxtowe Borough Council has launched a public consultation about the future of the town centre. Please click here for more details and to have your say.

Pub news

Save the New White Bull

New rules which I voted for in the last Parliament, mean developers must now apply for planning permission for a 'change of use' to convert a pub to a shop. The application to convert the New White Bull at Giltbrook into a Co-Op has been submitted. We all have the opportunity to challenge the application and persuade Broxtowe Borough Council to reject it. You can view the application here. I will be contacting everyone who has attended recent meetings to save the New White Bull, with advice on how we can oppose the application.

The Crown Beeston - marquee nonsense

Broxtowe Borough Council has ruled against a marquee at the back of The Crown in Beeston. This is a stupid decision in my opinion. This award winning pub has survived the tram works and as well as serving excellent ale, considerably enhances the reputation of Beeston. Their first beer festival is planned for next weekend; details on their Facebook page here. The decision of the Borough Council flies in the face of everyone's desire to grow the evening economy in Beeston and take full advantage of the tram.

I have written to the new leader of Broxtowe Borough Council, Richard Jackson, asking him to find out what is going on and how the decision might be reversed or at least re considered.

I must swiftly add (it's my local, local) that the White Lion in Bramcote, otherwise known as the Top House, is having a beer festival from next Thursday; details here.
